Let's continue...

Heading up in the elevator, our first stop is the bullpen, the beating heart of the Daily Bugle's news operations, where you might catch our team of journalists working on a Spider-Man front page scandal (or just helping themselves to donuts). On the 3rd floor, you'll find our photographer, Peter Parker. He's a ... pretty normal guy. Mind that nasty-looking spider though... On the top floor, you'll find our editor J. Jonah Jameson calling the shots. Best to stay out of his way - he can be a bit grouchy - and DEFINITELY don't mention Spider-Man... You might notice some loud noises during your stay here. Don't worry about that. It's most likely Venom, Doc Ock, Green Goblin or one of the other villains engaged in deadly battle on the exterior of the building. Happens every day. Spider-Man, Daredevil, Blade, or one of the other good guys will be along soon enough to sort them out. And that concludes your tour. Any questions?

FR

Continuons...

En direction de l'ascenseur, notre premier arrêt est le bureau à aire ouverte, le cœur des opérations de Daily Bugle, où une équipe de journalistes planche sur le prochain grand titre sur Spider-Man (ou mange quelques beignes). Au 3<sup>e</sup> étage se trouve notre photographe, Peter Parker. C'est un gars... assez normal. Attention à l'affreuse araignée... À l'étage supérieur se trouve J. Jonah Jameson, notre directeur. Il vaut mieux rester à l'écart (il peut être assez grognon) et éviter À TOUT PRIX de mentionner Spider-Man... La visite pourrait être ponctuée de quelques bruits assourdissants. C'est tout à fait normal. Ce n'est probablement qu'un affrontement violent entre Venom, le Docteur Octopus et le Bouffon vert ou un autre vilain à l'extérieur du bâtiment. Ça arrive tous les jours. Spider-Man, Daredevil, Blade, ou l'un des autres héros viendra les arrêter bien assez tôt. Et ceci conclut notre visite. Des questions ?

EN Venom fight on the backside.
FR Combat contre Venom à l'arrière.
ES Venom pelea en la parte trasera.

ES

Sigamos...

Ya en el elevador, nuestra primera parada es la redacción: el corazón de las operaciones informativas del Daily Bugle, donde puedes ver a nuestro equipo de periodistas trabajando en una portada protagonizada por Spider-Man (o, simplemente, consintiéndose con las donas). En el tercer piso encontrarás a Peter Parker, nuestro fotógrafo. Es un... tipo bastante normal. Aunque será mejor que tengas cuidado con esa desagradable araña. En el piso superior encontrarás a nuestro redactor jefe, J. Jonah Jameson, dirigiendo todo. Será mejor que te apartes de su camino (es un poco gruñón). Ah, y NO SE TE OCURRA mencionar a Spider-Man... Tal vez oigas ruidos fuertes mientras estás aquí. No tienes de qué preocuparte. Seguramente se trata de Venom, Doc Ock, el Duende Verde u otro villano participando en una peligrosa batalla fuera del edificio. Pasa todos los días. Spider-Man, Daredevil, Blade o algún otro superhéroe llegarán pronto para ocuparse de eso. Y así concluye la visita. ¿Alguna pregunta?

BUILDING THE BUGLE

DAILY BUGLE EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH LEGO® DESIGNER MARK JOHN STAFFORD BY BEN URICH

Mr Stafford. Thanks for your time. You were tasked with creating the LEGO® version of the iconic Daily Bugle HQ, so beloved by fans of the so-called 'Spider-Man.' What was your approach?

Thanks for having me, Ben. The Bugle tower has been part of mythos for so long. I really wanted to capture that authentic New York setting with features like the water tower, the yellow taxi and the newspaper stand. After that, I just wanted to include as many heroes and as much action as I could!

What kind of challenges did you face in creating the Bugle?

Well, we really wanted to show off the interior of the building in some way and show some classic Bugle scenes inside. There was a lot of building and rebuilding, and one day I was trying some things out and came up with the idea of the removable front windows. From that moment, everything kind of clicked (no pun intended).

CONSTRUCTION DU BUGLE

ENTREVUE EXCLUSIVE DU DAILY BUGLE AVEC LE CONCEPTEUR LEGO® MARK JOHN STAFFORD PAR BEN URICH

M. Stafford. Merci de votre temps. Vous avez été chargé de créer une version LEGO® de l'emblématique QG du Daily Bugle, tant aimé des amateurs du dénommé « Spider-Man ». Quelle a été votre approche ?

Merci de me recevoir, Ben. La tour du Bugle est un emblème depuis bien longtemps. Je voulais vraiment saisir le cadre authentique de New York avec des caractéristiques telles que le château d'eau, le taxi jaune et le kiosque de journaux. Ensuite, tout ce que je voulais, c'était d'inclure le plus de héros et d'action possible !

Quels défis avez-vous dû relever durant la création du Bugle ?

Nous voulions qu'il soit possible d'entrevoir l'intérieur du bâtiment et d'y observer des scènes typiques du Bugle. Nous avons dû construire et reconstruire plusieurs fois, puis un jour, alors que je tentais des expériences, j'ai eu l'idée d'installer des fenêtres avant amovibles. C'était la dernière pièce du casse-tête (sans vouloir faire de jeu de mots).

CONSTRUIR EL BUGLE

ENTREVISTA EXCLUSIVA DEL DAILY BUGLE CON EL DISEÑADOR DE LEGO® MARK JOHN STAFFORD, POR BEN URICH

Sr. Stafford, gracias por su tiempo. Le encargaron la creación de la versión LEGO® de la inconfundible sede central del Daily Bugle, tan representativa para los fans del que llaman "Spider-Man". ¿Cómo se planteó resolverlo?

Gracias por recibirme, Ben. La torre del Bugle ha formado parte del mito durante mucho tiempo. Quería capturar el auténtico ambiente neoyorquino mediante elementos como la torre de agua, el taxi amarillo y el puesto de periódicos. ¡Cuando lo logré, mi única preocupación fue incluir tantos héroes y tanta acción como pudiera!

¿Qué tipo de desafíos enfrentó al crear el Bugle?

Bueno, realmente queríamos mostrar el interior del edificio de alguna manera, además de representar varias de las clásicas escenas que tuvieron lugar dentro del Bugle. Después de mucho construir y reconstruir, un día, mientras probaba cosas distintas, se me ocurrió la idea de incluir ventanas delanteras removibles. A partir de ese momento, todo encajó (perdón por el chiste malo).

EN The rat in the alley. FR Le rat dans la ruelle. ES La rata del callejón.

EN

There's a lot for fans to love in this set – are there any hidden touches you're especially happy with?

You'll notice a rat in the alleyway, that's a fun little call-back to the rodent who changed the course of destiny by walking across the control panel in Avengers: Endgame.

And how about you? What character or element is your personal favorite?

As a Daredevil fan, getting the green light to include the first ever LEGO® Daredevil was really exciting. I made sure he was in a prominent place, right at the front of the building, in his classic bright red suit. It's a small thing, but he's been my personal favorite for a long time, so I was very happy with that.

FR

Cet ensemble a beaucoup à offrir aux amateurs – y a-t-il des détails cachés dont vous êtes particulièrement fier ?

Vous remarquerez un rat dans la ruelle; c'est une référence amusante au rongeur qui a altéré le cours du destin en marchant sur le panneau de commande dans Avengers : Phase finale.

Et vous ? Quel est votre personnage ou élément favori ?

Étant amateur de Daredevil, j'ai été enchanté de recevoir la permission d'inclure le premier Daredevil LEGO®. Je me suis assuré de le placer bien en évidence, devant le bâtiment, dans son costume rouge vif classique. Ce n'est rien de majeur, mais ça m'a fait énormément plaisir, puisqu'il est mon personnage préféré depuis très longtemps.

ES

El set incluye un montón de cosas para hacer felices a los fans. ¿Existe algún detalle secreto del que esté especialmente satisfecho?

Hay una rata en el callejón. Es un gracioso detalle relacionado con el roedor que cambia el curso del destino al recorrer el panel de control en Avengers: Endgame.

¿Y qué hay de usted? ¿Qué personaje o elemento es su favorito?

Como fan de Daredevil, recibir el visto bueno para incluir al primer Daredevil LEGO® de la historia fue muy emocionante. Me aseguré de que estuviera en un lugar destacado, justo en la parte delantera del edificio, con su clásico traje rojo intenso. No es gran cosa, pero fue mi personaje favorito durante mucho tiempo, así que aquello me hizo muy feliz.

DESIGNER MARK TRANTER

"I'm a true Spider-Man fan, so I wanted to get as much of that universe into this set as possible. Fans will really enjoy the little jokes and references to classic stories – like the clone epidemic or Norman Osborne running for Mayor. With each of the main characters in the set I wanted to hint towards their backstory, so Daredevil has "Nelson and Murdoch" and Blade has "Vampires Spotted on the Subway" which is one of my personal favorites!"

ENTREVISTA CON EL DISEÑADOR GRÁFICO DE LEGO®: MARK TRANTER

"Soy un verdadero fan de Spider-Man, así que me esforcé por incluir tanto como pudiera de su universo en el set. A los fans les encantarán las pequeñas bromas y referencias a las historias clásicas (como la epidemia de clones o la candidatura de Norman Osborne a la alcaldía). Quise dejar pistas de la biografía de cada uno de los personajes que protagonizan el set. Así, el bufete de abogados Nelson y Murdock es una clara alusión a Daredevil, mientras que el noticiero de televisión sobre el avistamiento de vampiros en el metro, uno de mis detalles favoritos, evidentemente se refiere a Blade".
